

CONSUMER REPORT DISCLOSURE FORM FOR VOLUNTEERS

In connection with your application for volunteer opportunities and/or your continued volunteer activities with SeniorsPlus, SeniorsPlus may obtain one or more consumer reports and/or investigative consumer reports (collectively “Consumer Report”) regarding you for. Subsequent consumer reports may be requested or utilized in connection with your application for volunteer opportunities or your continued volunteer activities with SeniorsPlus.

Information that is commonly included in a Consumer Report may include, but is not limited to, information about character, general reputation, criminal record, motor vehicle record, credit history, mode of living and other personal characteristics relevant to volunteering with SeniorsPlus. An investigative consumer report involves personal interviews with sources such as friends, neighbors and associates.

Your volunteer activity with SeniorsPlus is conditional upon the satisfactory results of any Consumer Report(s) regarding you. If the Consumer Report(s) is (are) not satisfactory, as determined by the SeniorsPlus, in its sole discretion, you may be denied volunteer opportunities or your volunteer activities with the SeniorsPlus may be terminated.

You have the right to request and receive a written statement explaining the nature and scope of any investigation which is requested with respect to you, as well as the name, address, and telephone number of the nearest unit designated to handle inquiries of each consumer reporting agency issuing a Consumer Report about you. SeniorsPlus will provide this information to you within five (5) business days of receiving your request or within five (5) business days of SeniorsPlus requesting the report, whichever is later. You also have the right to request and promptly receive copies of any Consumer Report about you from any credit reporting agency issuing such a report.
