Background Check Report
Correcting Inaccurate Information
Applicants or Employees

You have the right to challenge and correct inaccurate information found during a comprehensive background check. If you know that information presented on the Maine Background Check Center (MBCC) report is incorrect or incomplete you must seek a challenge and ask for a correction to the reporting entity as follows:

State Criminal Records: You must challenge incorrect or incomplete state criminal record information maintained by state criminal record repositories directly to the state where the record is maintained.

State of Maine criminal history records may be challenged by contacting the Maine State Bureau of Identification (SBI) directly by writing the State Bureau of Identification, State House Station #42, Augusta, ME 04333-0042, or online at <http://www.maine.gov/dps/Sbi/contact.html>. The SBI is responsible for correcting the record and notifying the MBCC. The MBCC will issue a final background check report to your employer upon completion of the error correction process based on the final record released by the SBI.

Federal Criminal Records: You must challenge incorrect or incomplete criminal record information maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) by communicating directly with the Federal or State agency responsible for submitting the criminal record to the FBI. Alternatively, you may challenge the accuracy of the FBI record directly to the FBI by writing the Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division, ATTN: Summary Request, 1000 Custer Hollow Road, Clarksburg, WV 26306, or online at <https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks>. The FBI is responsible for correcting the record and notifying the Maine Background Check Center, and a revised Background Check Report can be issued. (See 28 CFR §§16.30 - 16.34)

Public Registries: If you believe that disqualifying offense information listed on a Federal or State registry is incorrect or incomplete, you must contact the agency responsible for maintaining the registry.

Out of State Registries

The employer has the option to search Out of State Registries based on information you provide in your application. If there is an error found in information listed on registries in other states, you must contact that particular registry for corrections.

Professional Licensing

If you believe that information provided about your professional license is incorrect or incomplete, you must contact the agency responsible for the licensing data.

General Instructions

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2020 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2019 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2020. You had no federal income tax liability in 2019 if (1) your total tax on line 16 on your 2019 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 18a, 18b, and 18c), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2020 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2021.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as the additional Medicare tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. Step 3 of Form W-4 provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit and Credit for Other Dependents. You can also include other tax credits in this step, such as education tax credits and the foreign tax credit. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2020 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2020 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income
2 Enter: { $24,800 if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er); $18,650 if you're head of household; $12,400 if you're single or married filing separately }
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

Line 6e. If you are the spouse of a member of the military, you may claim exemption from Maine withholding if you meet the following requirements:

1. Your spouse is a member of the military located in Maine in compliance with military orders.
2. You are in Maine solely to be with your spouse.
3. You and your spouse have the same domicile in a state other than Maine.
4. You attach a copy of your spouse's latest Leave and Earning Statement reflecting an assignment location in Maine.

5. You present your military ID to your employer. The ID must identify you as a military spouse.

Your exemption will expire at the end of the calendar year during which you submit Form W-4ME claiming the exemption, at which time you must complete and submit a new Maine Form W-4ME for the new year.

Note: You may be subject to penalty if you do not have sufficient withholding to meet your Maine income tax liability.

Notice to Employers and Other Payers

Maine law requires employers and other persons to withhold money from certain payments, most commonly wages, retirement payments and gambling winnings, and remit to Maine Revenue Services for application against the Maine income tax liability of employees and other payees. The amount of withholding must be calculated according to the provisions of Rule No. 803 (See www.maine.gov/revenue/rules) and must constitute a reasonable estimate of Maine income tax due on the receipt of the payment. Amounts withheld must be paid over to Maine Revenue Services on a periodic basis as provided by Title 36 M.R.S. Chapter 827 (§§ 5250 - 5255-B) and Rule No. 803 (18-125 C.M.R., ch. 803).

Employer/Payer Information for Completing Form W-4ME

An employer/payer is required to submit a copy of Form W-4ME, along with a copy of any supporting information provided by the employee/payee, to Maine Revenue Services if:

- A. The employer/payer is required to submit a copy of federal Form W-4 to the Internal Revenue Service either by written notice or by published guidance as required by federal regulation 26 CFR 31.3402(f)(2)-1(g); or
- B. An employee performing personal services in Maine furnishes a Form W-4ME to the employer containing a non-Maine address and, for any reason, claims no Maine income tax is to be withheld. This submission is not required if the employer reasonably expects that the employee will earn annual Maine-source income of less than $5,000 or if the employee is a nonresident working in Maine for no more than 12 days for the calendar year and is, therefore, exempt from Maine income tax withholding.

Submit copies of Form W-4ME directly to the MRS Withholding Unit separately from any other tax filing.

Employers/Payers must complete lines 7 through 10 only if required to submit a copy of Form W-4ME to Maine Revenue Services.

- ✓ Line 7 Enter employer/payer name and business address.
- ✓ Line 8 Enter employer/payer federal identification number (EIN and/or SSN).
- ✓ Line 9 Enter employer/payer contact person who can answer questions about withholding (i.e. human resources person, company officer, accountant, etc.).
- ✓ Line 10 Enter employer/payer contact person's phone number.

Important Information for Employers/Payers

Missing or invalid Forms W-4, W-4P or W-4ME. If any of the circumstances below occur, the employer or payer must withhold as if the employee or payee were single and claiming no allowances. Maine income tax must be withheld at this rate until such time that the employee or payee provides a valid Form W-4ME.

- (1) The employee/payee has not provided a valid, signed Form W-4ME;
- (2) The employee's/payee's Form W-4 or W-4P is determined to be invalid for purposes of federal withholding;
- (3) The Assessor notifies the employer/payer that the employee's/payee's Form W-4ME is invalid; or
- (4) The employee's/payee's Personal Withholding Allowance Variance Certificate has expired, a new variance certificate has not been approved and submitted to the employer/payer and the payee has not provided the payer with a valid Form W-4ME.

Exemptions from withholding Form W-4ME, line 6. Generally, employers/payers must withhold from payments subject to Maine income tax unless an exemption is claimed on line 6.

Federal exemption from withholding (lines 6a and 6b). An employee/payee who is exempt from federal income tax withholding is also exempt from Maine income tax withholding. This includes recipients of periodic retirement payments who are exempt from federal income tax withholding. The employee/payee must check the applicable box on line 6. An employee/payee exempt from federal withholding that wants Maine withholding must leave line 6 blank.

Resident employee exemption from Maine withholding (line 6c). A resident employee who is subject to federal income tax withholding is exempt from Maine income tax withholding if the employee had no Maine tax liability for the prior year and expects to have no Maine tax liability for the current year. The exemption on line 6c expires at the end of each year. If the employee fails to submit a new Form W-4ME for the next calendar year, the employer must begin withholding at the single rate with no allowances.

Withholding from payments to nonresident employees. An employee who is exempt from Maine income tax because of the nontaxable thresholds applicable to nonresidents is not required to complete and submit Form W-4ME; however, an employee becomes subject to Maine income tax withholding immediately upon exceeding a threshold at any time during the year. Because all income earned in Maine is taxable by Maine once a threshold is exceeded, employers should work with affected employees to ensure that Maine withholding is adequate to cover Maine income tax liability for the year. This may require the employee submitting a new Form W-4ME with the employer.

Withholding exemption for periodic retirement payments (line 6d). Recipients of periodic retirement payments as defined by IRC § 3405 that are subject to federal income tax withholding are exempt from Maine income tax withholding if the recipient certifies (by checking the box on line 6d) that he or she had no Maine income tax liability for the prior year and expects to have no Maine income tax liability for the current year. The exemption remains in effect until the recipient submits an updated Form W-4ME.

Exemptions under the Military Spouse's Residency Relief Act (MSRRA). If the box on line 6e is checked, the employer must:

- (1) Ensure that a copy of the military member's Leave and Earnings Statement (LES) is attached, and verify that the assignment location entered on the LES is a location in Maine; and
- (2) Review the employee's military ID to ensure that the date on the ID is not more than four years prior to the date on the employee's Form W-4ME, and that the ID denotes the employee as a current military spouse.

An exemption claimed on line 6e expires at the end of the calendar year. If the employee does not submit a new Maine Form W-4ME, the employer must begin withholding for the first pay period in the following year at the maximum rate (single with one allowance).

See the employee instructions for line 6e above for more information about this exemption.
